

The gift of consecrated life for the Church and the world

. The Original painting of the Adorable Head of Jesus was painted by M ° Capparone and guided by the founding mother Sister Carmela of Jesus Prestigiacommo while she was in ecstasy

On February 2, 2021, as every year, the World Day of Consecrated Life is celebrated, an event that touches us closely and fills us with joy and gratitude towards God, who has chosen and called us to live for him, with him and in Him at the service of the Church and of all the brothers.

The Congregation for Institutes of Consecrated Life and Societies of Apostolic Life on January 18 wrote a letter to all consecrated persons, in whose main message you can read:

"We dream as one humanity, as travelers made of the same human flesh, as children of this same land that hosts all of us, each with the richness of his faith or convictions, each with his own voice, all brothers!" (FT8). So, in the horizon of this dream that will be delivered into our hands, to our passion, to our perseverance, this year on February 2 will also be a beautiful feast in which to praise and thank the Lord for the gift of our vocation!

Lent, journey towards Easter with Mother Carmela

We offer you two short excerpts from the Writings of the Venerable Servant of God (1895)

Mother Carmela and the Chaplet to the adorable Head of Jesus

"He showed me the Adorable Head of Jesus as an inexhaustible source of light and truth, which, like a continuous and interminable stream, continually spreads over the earth, dispersing error and bringing to it that true Wisdom of which He alone is the true and ineffable Master. He also showed me how the Adorable Head of Jesus was the true Masterpiece of the infinite Wisdom of God and that Himself through the hypostatic union with the Word was all a heap of that Wisdom and divinity of which He was the Throne and the Stool, where the Most Holy Trinity sat down, rested, formed his eternal abode ... "

"... Faith being in these times of corruption and scandal almost extinguished and dead, due to the progress of the natural and human sciences, which tend to overthrow that true Divine science of which Jesus was the true and wise ineffable Master, to awaken this faith, Jesus presents to us his Adorable Head, the main and ineffable source and center of wisdom and truth, which vibrating the miraculous rays on the minds and hearts will ignite the flame of faith and love again."

Sisters of the Sacred Heart of the Incarnate Word

Testimonies:

"Often times the Servant of God said to me: "Try to make the Word read and deepen, that is in the Holy Scripture and in the Tradition the true wisdom, because if you don't have it, how can you dispense this Bread of life to the youth who is she so greedy? ... Keep the Gospel as the Book dearest to you, because from this you will learn the great love that Jesus had for us and for everyone, sure way, Chair of Truth, True Life. If you say you love Jesus, love and make the Scripture be loved". Oh, as his affirmations made us more lovers of the Word of God, it was read with more love and recommended it to everyone!

Especially to us Sisters of the Sacred Heart of the Incarnate Word in the way of Mary Most Holy in the Annunciation ... "The venerated Mother admonished by saying:" The true Sister of the Sacred Heart is the one who accepts every divine disposition by saying; "Behold, the handmaid of the Lord and be done with me, with us, according to Your Word! - we adore the divine designs, which are always the best for us! " And I, like Our Lady, tried to keep these holy teachings, because I saw that they were inspired by the good Lord!"

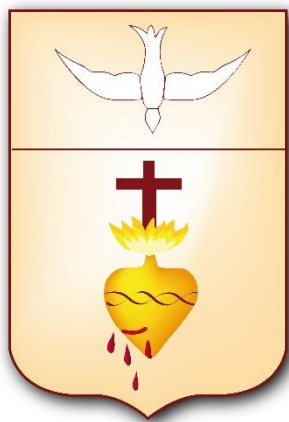

Suor Aurelia Caly

"Promemoria sulla Venerata Madre Fondatrice

“An acute pain continually torments me, the thought that Jesus is not loved by most of men, and that he is indeed outraged ... I would like to love him for everyone, I would like to make amends for so many offenses, in a word I would like to give my life, my blood to lead everyone back to his Adorable Heart”.

Venerable Mother Carmela Prestigiacomo, Vol. I p. 184 Letter to Fr. Vincenzo Nardelli, O.P. Palermo, 21 October 1900.

Prayer for the glorification of the Venerable Servant of God
Mother Carmela Prestigiacomo

O Jesus, incarnate Wisdom of the Father,

You that have opened widely the doors of your Heart to all men to love you more and more.

Thank you for the gift of Venerable Mother Carmela
and I ask you, through her intercession,

to increase the Faith in me,

Hope and Charity

and to grant me the grace I need

but above all to see her soon raised to the honors of the altars.

Amen.
